BOG OAK CHARRED CASK MATURED

The age-old hills of Glengarriff, West Cork, are home to ancient woodland & accompanying bogland. The Glengarriff series of West Cork Irish whiskey is an August tribute to this historic part of Ireland. Bog Oak from Glengarriff is burned using traditional bellowing techniques to char virgin oak casks. The single malt is then uniquely finished in these casks at 43% abv to create a truly unique Irish whiskey. The Glengarriff range is finished in casks at 43% to accentuate the effect of this unique cask charring art.
